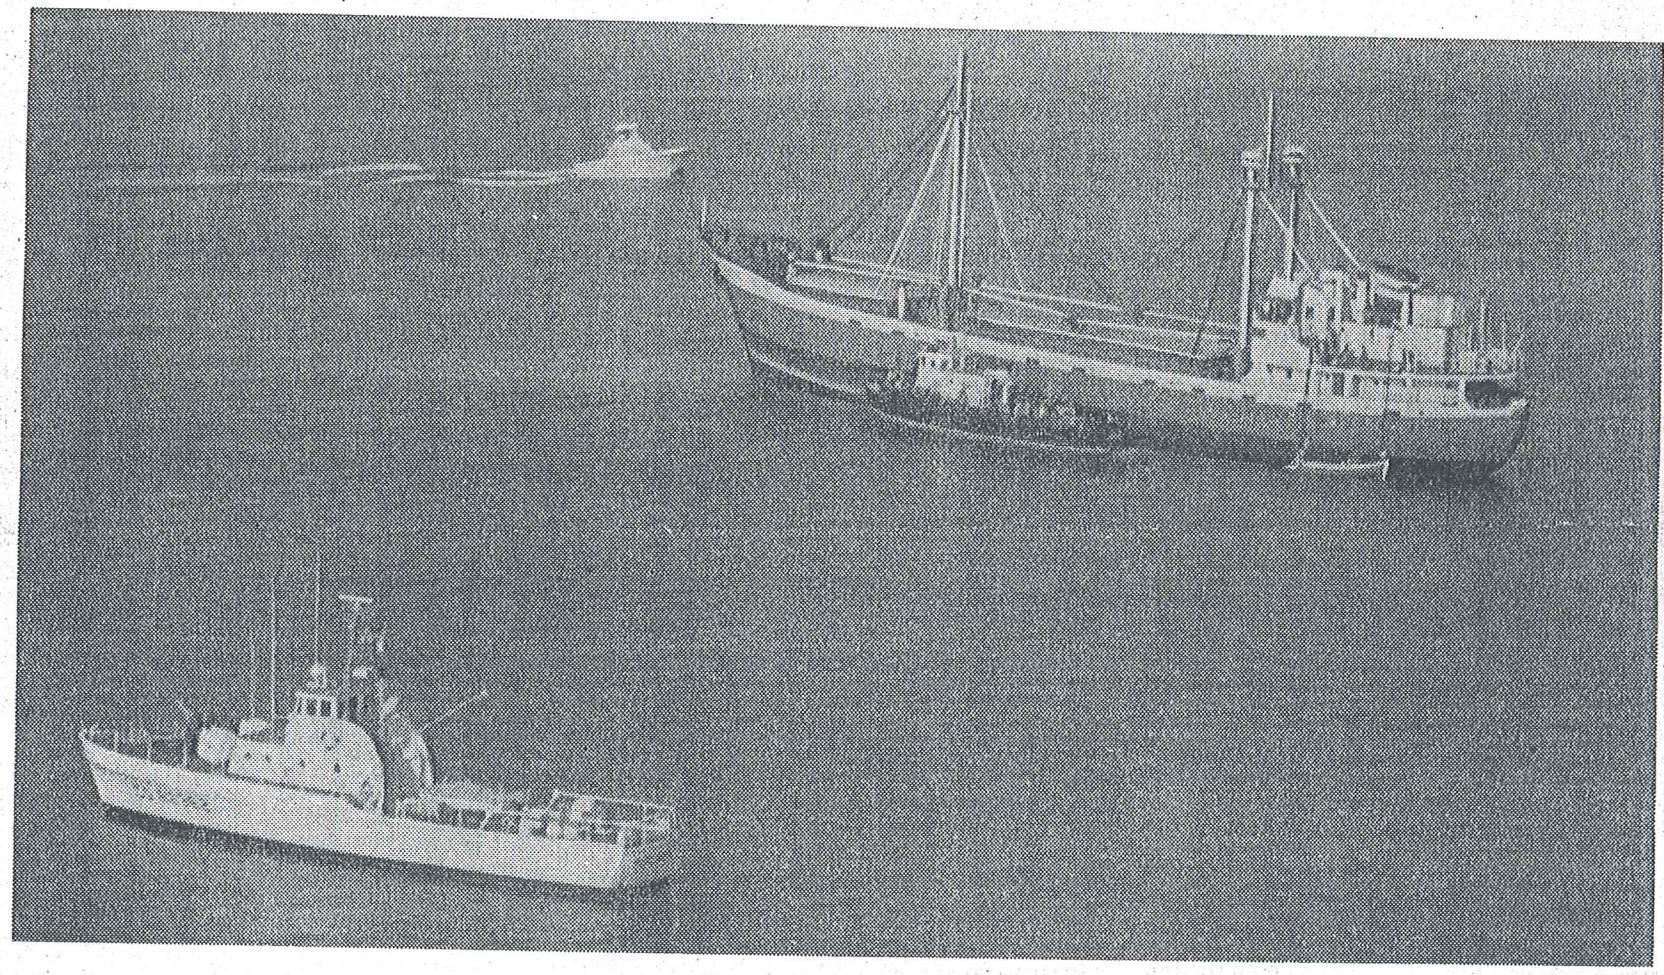
The Washington Post

Times Herald

Washington Post Co. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1968 Phone 223-6000 Circulation 223-6100 Classified 223-6200

In

Amus
City
Class
Colur
Comi
Edito
Event



United Press International

The Coast Guard tug Chock lies alongside Cuban fishing vessel 10 miles off the U.S. coast. Another Coast Guard vessel, the Point Brown, is in foreground. They moved in after a Cuban ship rammed 3 defectors in a boat. When this picture was taken the Cuban vessel had just recovered the small boat with the three men who had asked asylum in the United States. An unidentified fishing boat is in the background.